Of course this doesn't mean that our sin and rebellion don't break the heart of God. They absolutely do. But because of Jesus, our sin and rebellion don't make us less lovable to Him. That's the difference! The truth is that because of Jesus, God is not mad at us.

God is Not Mad at You - Jennifer Dukes Lee

In reality, God is nothing like my past experience had shaped Him to be. He is our gracious heavenly Father who loves and accepts us as we are, patiently bearing with us, teaching and guiding us as we grow and mature in Christ. He is not mad at me, and He is not mad at you. God is for us, not against us (Romans 8:31).

am. The Bible is a record of sin, deceit and immorality of every kind. It's also a record of God's amazing grace and love. The heroes we admire were people just like us. They failed miserably at times, and yet they found love, acceptance, forgiveness, and mercy as free gifts from God.

God Is Mad At Me & Other Myths - Part 1 | Everyday Answers

Yes, God hates sin. In fact, the Psalmist says that God feels indignation and righteous judgment "every day" (Psalm 7:11). But Romans 1:18 makes it clear that God's wrath is reserved for sin itself, revealed "against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men." He detests sin, but he does not detest sinners.
