The equality illusion : the truth about women and men ...

The Equality Illusion: The truth about women and men today by Kat Banyard deals with the ideas of inequality due to sex. Banyard used interviews from different women and girls to give support and real life examples of what women and girls go through to this day because of their gender. I like the particular way the book is structured by going through the course of the day and how during these times it gives insight into the sexism and inequality that exists during that particular time. I believe ...
